14. In case of using an access control system, the organiser may also require the redemption of a card with a photograph suitable for identification and entitling to discounts (hereinafter referred to as "Club Card"). A club card, ticket or pass may not be sold to a person registered with the sporting administration to the venue of a sports event or to a sporting facility under a prohibition, ban or exclusion order, or, as a travelling sports organisation, to a sporting facility at the venue of a sports event, whether domestic or foreign
15. Interpretative provisions concerning these rules:
- 15.1. Organiser: For sports events organised in a competition system under the jurisdiction of the Hungarian Ice Hockey Federation: the home sporting organisation. For national team games, the Hungarian Cup Final and other sports events organised directly by it: the IIHF.
- 15.2. Participant of sports event: a natural person who is present at the venue of a sports event during its duration. A spectator (fan) is considered a participant,
- 15.3. Security staff: Persons employed by the security contractor hired to provide security for the event at the sports event venue and in connection with providing security for the event, who can be identified in their appearance as a security staff member and who as a minimum is qualified as a Protective Services Officer.
- 15.4. Steward: The organiser may employ stewards for performing the tasks related to the organisation of the sports event as volunteers or under an employment contract or other legal relationship. As a representative of the organiser, a steward especially assists in the communication with and providing information to the spectators and other participants at the venue of the sports event, in accessing the venue of the sports event and orientation inside, in the secure implementation of the sports event and in the use of the services provided at the venue of the sports event. Pursuant to the law only individuals over the age of 18 and with no criminal record may be employed as stewards.
- 15.5. Sports event: a competition or game held for the pursuit of a sports activity in or outside a competition system, as well as an hour and a half long time period preceding the event, as well as an hour and a half immediately after the event.
- 15.6. Venue of the sports event: a public location or a specific part of the public area where the sports event is held and where spectators may be present.
- 15.7. Sports facility: a location or a venue where the sports event is held.
- 15.8. Exclusion: Pursuant to the law during a sports event organised by the organiser or with the involvement of a travelling sports organisation and during the use of the admission system the organiser shall refuse to sell admission tickets to individuals ejected from the sports event and shall prevent the attendance of the sports event by such persons (ban). The travelling sports organisation and the organiser may exclude from the attendance of the sports event anyone who has been ejected from a sports event, or who was not ejected because an intervention by the organiser (security staff) at the venue of the sports event was thought to provoke actions by the spectators that would have disproportionately jeopardised the safety of the sports event.

This notice is based on, but is not intended to be exhaustive of, the legal provisions. Effective from publication.
